

Spring Literacy BINGO - Home Edition

Spring Literacy BINGO is here! During this time at home, there are many opportunities for us to engage with each other while reading, writing, and sharing. This BINGO challenge is just one fun way to do this. Take as long as you need and feel free to do challenges more than once. I have left 3 boxes empty for you and your family to come up with ideas on your own. Happy reading, writing, and sharing.

Read or write a comic.	Read or watch about your hobby or special interest to try something new.	Watch an author read their story online.	Have an adult share their favourite story.	Have a family sing-a-long or karaoke event.
Write a letter or email to a relative, family friend, teacher, or librarian to brighten their day.	Read to Grandma, Grandpa or adult family friend online, by phone, or while physical distancing.	Write a message to post on your window or on the sidewalk that you would like to share with others.		Read a non-fiction book or learn about a non-fiction topic of interest.
Write a story and read it to your family.	Hold a joke/riddle party. Have everyone share at least 2 jokes or riddles.		Read a fiction book and draw or write a new ending to the book.	Your family all reads quietly for 15 minutes.
Read your favourite book with someone and talk about what makes this your favourite.	Hold a family game night.	Read a recipe and make it together.	Read with a family member.
Draw a picture to go with a story someone read to you or you heard online.		Help create a shopping list.	Read or write about your pet or favourite animal.	Have a "screen free" night and turn off all devices.
